

Policy Disclosure

Payment for open and private training

50% deposit with confirmation of training schedule. Balance due at completion of class

Full payment with confirmation for the web based HeadStart Program Preparation Program

Cancellation policy

There can be issue by the student or instructor that create a need to cancel.

All we ask is that you notify us ASAP

Please remember when you are registered and confirmed a place in the class and range is reserved for you. Range time is the most significant. Bass Pro Shop prefers that I notify them of the number of lanes required 1 to 2 days before class. If a person does not cancel and is a "fail to show without cancel" I am required to pay the range and classroom fees for that person.

Deposit and refunds

Deposits and full payments are issued to those who notify of the cancelation of the class.

Fail to show

There are no deposit refunds for fail to show

Full payments are issued a 50% refund

Ammunition

Those attending class can bring their own ammunition or purchase at class.

No reloads – new ammunition only and in original box.

* Ammunition based on the cost of a 50 round box 9mm purchased at training or brought to class

Private Training Variables or need for additional training:

The student may request or the instructor may recommend additional training

Costs can vary usually based on three things, training time range and ammunition

Additional costs are based on the following:

Instructor fee 30.00

Range 15.00 hour

Ammunition- as required
